PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

State, county and municipal laws pertaining to automatic knives are varied. The purchaser is responsible for knowing exactly what your local laws are concerning purchasing, or carrying an automatic knife and abiding by those laws. It is your responsibility before purchasing an automatic knife to know the laws pertaining to your area.

For example, some states allow the collection of automatic knives. Other states allow possession and carry of automatic knives but only of a certain size. Some states allow possession but ban concealed carry. A few states don't specifically mention automatic knives in their laws.

Some states and municipalities do not even allow police, firefighters, paramedics or EMTs to carry them. Even “Gravity Knives” are forbidden.

Therefore GG&G Inc. does not warrant that a person may legally purchase, carry or possess a “Blackstone” in their local.

If you wish to continue with the purchase, please complete the form found on page two
